College Archives & Special Collections
Researcher Registration & Regulations

The Western State Colorado University Archives and Special Collections are available to anyone. To review materials requires prior arrangement with the College Archivist. Because of their unique nature, value, age, and/or condition, researchers must agree to the following regulations designed to provide maximum access protecting materials for the future.

1. Use of materials requires presentation of appropriate identification (driver’s license or student ID).

2. Materials must be used in the library.

3. To prevent damage from ink, only pencils and laptop computers may be used for note-taking.

4. Although eating and drinking are allowed in the library, these activities are prohibited while using archival and special collections materials.

5. Maintaining the exact order of materials in a folder and folders within a box are very important. Please preserve the original arrangement of materials and folders. If you notice a mistake in arrangement, please notify the staff.

6. Exercise all possible care to prevent damage to the items. Materials should not be written on, altered, learned on, folded anew, traced or handled in any way likely to damage them. Notify the staff of any damage noticed.

7. Please leave all materials on the table when you have finished. A staff member will reshelve them.

8. Photocopying is available in the library. The library will consider requests for photocopying, scanning, or duplicating materials when such duplication can be accomplished without injury to the material, when it is within library policy and when it is in accordance with donor agreements and copyright restrictions. A signed Duplication Agreement may be required prior to duplication of materials.

9. Permission to Publish
   - Researchers should be aware that the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) provides protection for unpublished materials as well as for published works. Permission to publish from or to quote from previously unpublished manuscripts or from published items under copyright must first be obtained from the copyright holder.
   - Requests to publish material copyrighted by Western State Colorado University must be obtained from the Director of Library Services or his/her representative.
   - One copy of the publication referencing materials from the University Archives or Special Collections will be deposited in the Library in compliance with Library policy.

10. One-time Use Rights. Only single, one-time use rights are granted and further use of the material can only be made with written permission of the Library. Further reproduction of copies provided to the researcher is strictly prohibited. Reproductions may not be sold or deposited with other institutions without the written permission of the Director of Library Services or his/her representative.

11. Use the following format to credit all materials used in publication.

NOTICE
WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

I have read the above statements and agree to abide by these regulations. I agree that any use of the University Archives or Special Collections materials will adhere to copyright law, and any infringement will be my sole responsibility. I further agree that I am solely responsible for the use made of any material secured from Western State Colorado University and any liability resulting from use.
